

National Institute of Open Schooling
Senior Secondary Course : Military Studies
Lesson 8 : Geo-Politics
Worksheet – 8

1. International Relations is the study of international relations. Discuss the various types of relationships that countries have with one another.
2. Describe the variety of factors that play a significant role in determining the geo-political relations between countries?
3. Explain the possible influences of geography on geo-politics.
4. Mark the neighbours of India on a map and enlist the names of South Asian countries?
5. Identify the meaning of the following terminologies :
  - a. Hard Power
  - b. Soft Power
6. Soft Power has lent its support on various occasions to build friendly relations. Justify
7. Compare & Contrast the two kinds of power (soft & hard) used by nations to establish ties with other countries.
8. Analyse the treaties & alliances with reference to SAARC & ASEAN?
9. Discuss in detail about the panchsheel & non-alignment policy of India?
10. India's policy toward its neighbours is one of friendly cooperation. This, however, has been difficult to achieve. Analyze the above statement critically.