

National Institute of Open Schooling

Senior Secondary

Lesson 29B – Planning and Conducting Programmes

Worksheet- 29B

1. “For the play centre, programme planning is very important to reach the desired goal.” Justify the given statement.
2. A play centre is an important institution for laying the foundation for schooling. Describe the principles which should be considered while planning the programme for a play centre.
3. India has a variety of festivals. List out the various festivals round the year and plan a programme for children of a play centre for any two festivals.
4. Planning of activities is done beforehand to make sure that a holistic development of children takes place in a play centre. Explain the different types of programme planning used in a play centre.
5. Imagine you are running a play centre in your locality. Plan a weekly schedule for the play centre focusing on the different developmental domain enhancement of children.
6. Providing nourishment to the child is an important goal for a play centre. Explain the steps involved in the organization of a feeding programme in a play centre.
7. Suppose, you are the in-charge of a play centre. You have been assigned the duty of weekly meal planning. How will you plan the menu for the play centre? Explain.