

National Institute of Open Schooling
Senior Secondary Course : Environmental Science
Lesson 23 : Environmental Legislation
Worksheet-23

1. Why do you think there is a need of environmental legislation in our country for environmental protection? Explain in brief.
2. “Environmental problems are intrinsically global in nature.” Discuss this statement in terms of legislation.
3. When were environment related laws first came in existence, and implemented in India? Describe in brief.
4. Discuss a famous case related to industrial pollution and what is the historical judgment of this case?
5. Do you think that provision of penalties is an appropriate ways of punishment of any environmental law/act? Give reasons for your answer.
6. Mention the role of any international convention.
7. Differentiate among acts, convention and protocol with suitable examples.
8. “India has declared right to clean environment as a fundamental right.” How does it happen?
9. Discuss the main findings of Montreal protocol in terms of National Ambient Air Quality Monitoring Programme (NAAQM).
10. How does available judiciary provide help to protect environment in India?