

National Institute of Open Schooling
Senior Secondary Course : History
Lesson 14: Cultural developments in Medieval India
Worksheet-14

1. Mention the similarities in the teachings of the various monotheistic Bhakti saints in North India.
2. List the main features of Sufi movement in India.
3. The Bhakti movement in the early medieval period represents an important movement of reform and change in the society. Examine.
4. Trace the rise of new languages and the growth of literature in medieval India.
5. Explain the teachings and philosophy of Guru Nanak.
6. The growth of regional languages like Hindi, Bengali, Assamese, Oriya, Marathi and Gujarati during the medieval period was an important development. Explain.
7. New architectural forms and styles were introduced in India during the medieval period. Examine.
8. List the monuments which represent the early forms of Indo-Islamic architecture.
9. The Medieval Indian culture represents the synthesis of Indian and Persian philosophy, literature art and architecture. Examine.
10. Describe various schools of music and dance styles in medieval India.