

National Institute of Open Schooling
Senior Secondary Course: Mass Communication(335)
Lesson 13: Television in India
Worksheet-13

1. Show the different dates of emergence of television with the help of a table and write five applications related to those dates.
2. When was the first broadcast of television in India? Try to write in your own words the script of the program which was aired first.
3. Write a note of about 100 words when AIR (All India Radio) and Doordarshan separated. When did Doordarshan start functioning as an independent department?
4. When did the Satellite Instructional Television Experiment (SITE-SITE) started in India? Show the various broadcasting techniques adopted by India after the SITE through a table.
5. When did color broadcasting start on television in the world? Answer with reasoning in this regard.
6. Watch one episode each of the serials, Humlog, Buniyaad and Nukkad programs and mention the features of each program with your family.( You can find them on YouTube)
7. Make a comparative study of the programs broadcasted in Gyandarshan and Gyanvani.
8. Show the five earliest private televisions in India with the help of a table. Read the orders of the Supreme Court in this regard and answer on the basis of your experience.
9. Make a comparative study of the educational material related to education on Swayamprabha, Swayam and Diksha portal and write the date of launch of these various education portals through the table.
10. Discuss with your family about the use of television in daily life. Divide the use of television on the basis of social, entertainment and information and knowledge generation.